Easter Sunday 24th April, 2011 (Year A)

Jesus is Risen

Early on Easter Sunday, Ennis Parish celebrates the Dawn Mass. The service begins while still dark and continues as daylight appears. We gather as a faith community around the fire, to remind us of the light of Christ, a sign of the Resurrection. We hear for the first time the words proclaimed, "Christ is Risen". The light of Christ has come into the world, which the darkness cannot overcome.

As the morning comes alive with the sound of nature, we have the Eucharist, reminding us that Christ is present, giving us new life and hope, just like the disciples on that first Easter morning.

Easter morning is a time of renewal and is a celebration of God's love that brings light into darkness, hope into despair and peace into our souls. Like Mary of Magdala, we are invited to joyfully proclaim that Jesus is risen from the dead and share the good news with others. The message of the risen Jesus, which is a source of great happiness and joy and hope, has to be announced to the whole world.

At this joyous season, may the wondrous story of Easter morning, renew our Faith and our hope, so that we may be partakers of "Christ Glory!" and share the good news that Jesus is risen.

Buíochas

In our Irish tradition Holy Week is known as An Seachtain Mór - The great week.

We acknowledge the involvement and co-operation of so many people of the Parish in the Celebration of the Liturgies of this great week. We say particular words of thanks to Finbarr Coakley, Beechpark, for the Palm and Noel Griffin, Cusack Rd for Sally the Donkey; the choirs and choir directors, cantors and all involved in the music ministry, liturgical and Irish dancers; altar servers, readers, Eucharistic ministers, altar societies, sacristans, liturgy groups.

Cáisc faoi shéan is faoi mhaise do chách. Bíodh lúcháir orainn go léir ar an Domhnach seo, Domhnach an Aiséirí. D'aiséirigh íosa ó mharbh, cloch coirnéil ár gcreidimh. Bhí sé go mór in aigne na nGael go ndéanann an ghrian damhsa sa spéir le háthas gach Domhnach Cásca agus de réir an tseanchais, dúirt Pointias Píoláit lena bhean go gcreidfeadh sé in Aiséirí Chríost dá n-éireadh an coileach ón gcorcán. Leis sin d'éirigh an coileach ón gcorcán agus ghlaoigh sé amach os ard "Mac na hÓige Slán" Is í sin an abairt a bhíonn i mbéal an choiligh nuair a ligeann sé glao as ar maidin. Nach deas an scéal é!

Happy Easter to all. Let us be very happy on this, the Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection. Jesus rose from the dead, the corner stone of our religion. According to Irish tradition the sun dances with joy every Easter Sunday and Pontius Pilate informed his wife he would believe in the Resurrection of Christ if the cock which was being cooked jumped out. With that the cock jumped out and declared "Mac na hÓige Slán" "The Son of the Virgin is well!" This is what the cock says each time he crows!

Newly Baptised

We welcomed the following into the Christian Community through the Sacrament of Baptism:

Noah John Lawlor; Dylan Robert Ludden; Sophie Meave O'Connor; Nicole Mary Callinan; Maximilian James MacCarthy; Patrick Edward Cauley; Kyle James Hogan.

Today's Scripture Readings

With Inclusive Language

First Reading

Acts 10:34.37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

*This day was made by the Lord:
We rejoice and are glad.*

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.
Let the people of Israel say:
'His love has no end.'

R

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.
I shall not die, I shall live
and recount his deeds.

R

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.

R

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St. Paul

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The Gospel of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed;

Let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel:

John 20:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord
