Over €33,000 raised for Raheen hospital

A GROUP of Clare gardai have raised a whopping €33,450 for Raheen Community Hospital, Tuamgraney from the proceeds of a 150-kilometre cycle throughout East Clare.

In total, 32 members of the Clare Garda Division cycled the highways and byways of East Clare from Ennis to Mountshannon and back via Broadford and Newmarket-on-Fergus.

Killaloe-based Sergeant Gerry Mulqueen was one of the organisers of this year's event and he and internationally-acclaimed comedian Brendan Grace were anxious that money would be donated to a worthy local charitable cause.

Brendan's daughter, Amanda and her husband, Martin run Brendan Grace's bar at Main Street, Killaloe and they have also hosted monthly Monday night fundraising gigs for Raheen Community Hospital.

The cycle tour started at 9am on Friday, July 28 and the cyclists passed through Tulla, Bodke, Tuamgraney, Scariff, Mountshannon and Whitegate at 12 midday before returning to Mountshannon and back to Raheen Hospital for a pit stop at 1pm.

They subsequently departed for Ogonnelloe on to Killaloe, O'Briensbridge, Broadford, Sixmilebridge, Shannon, Newmarket-on-Fergus, Clarecastle before finally arriving in Ennis.

Last year, members of the Clare Garda Division generated over €15,000 for Cahercalla Community Hospice even though it also coincided with another charity event, Route 66, which involved a trip by a number of gardai motorbikes across the United States of America.

Out €33,000 was raised in 2005 and the organisers were delighted with this year's final which exceeded all expectations.

Michael O'Halloran explained that the club made every effort to donate all the money raised to different charities.
