Fourth Sunday of Easter (Year C) 12th May, 2019.

Vocations Sunday

The courage to take a risk for God's promise

On this Vocations Sunday, we acknowledge the example given by millions of lay people through the various lay apostolates in the church. For a true Christian the choices that set the direction of our personal journey, also contribute to the growth of God's kingdom in our world. I think of the decision to marry in Christ and to form a family, as well as all those other vocations associated with work and professional life, with the commitment to charity and solidarity, with social and political responsibilities, and so forth. These vocations make us bearers of a promise of goodness, love and justice, not only for ourselves but also for our societies and cultures, which need courageous Christians and authentic witnesses of the kingdom of God.

In consecrated life, countless Sisters and Brothers have valiantly served Christ in his church bringing so many people to God. In human terms their untiring work in education, catechesis, healthcare, helping the poor, working for justice and peace is unparalleled but is also a reflection of their deep rooted faith and prayer life and a very visible sign of the power of God at work.

Turning to the ordained ministry, in these days of declining numbers of priests and ever increasing workloads we are blessed by those Jesus calls to serve as Deacons in the church. Through ordination Deacons draw new strength from the gift of the Holy Spirit. They help the bishop and his body of priests as ministers of the word, of the altar, and of charity. They will make themselves servants to all. As ministers of the altar they will proclaim the Gospel, prepare the sacrifice, and give the Lord's body and blood to the community of believers. They are truly a wonderful gift of Christ to His church.

Vocation stories are not relics of the past. God still calls. He could be calling you to serve in his church. The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom; it is not a "cage" or a burden to be borne. On the contrary, it is the loving initiative whereby God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking.

There can be no greater joy than to risk everything for the Lord. Do not be deaf to the Lord's call. Do not yield to fear, which paralyzes us before the great heights to which the Lord points us. Always remember that to those who leave everything behind, and follow him, the Lord promises the joy of a new life that can fill our hearts and enliven our journey.

Let us join in prayer and ask the Lord to help us discover his plan of love for our lives, and to grant us the courage to walk in the path that, from the beginning, he has chosen for each of us.

Lá na nGairmeacha

Is lá speisialta san Eaglais an ceathrú Domhnach den Cháisc. Iarrtar orainn guí go dtiocfaidh méadú ar ghairmeacha chun na Sagartachta agus an Bheatha Reiligiúnach. Is é an Pobal a chothaíonn suim i ngairm na sagartachta. Is é losa féin a dúirt linn: "Tá an fómhar fairsing ach níl ann ach meitheal bheag. Dá bhrí sin guígí Máistir an fhómhair go gcuirfeadh sé meitheal uaidh isteach ina fhómhair" (Matha 9:37-38). Inár mBaisteadh ghlaoigh losa ar gach duine againn é a leanúint.
Faoi láthair sna tíortha saibhre, tá laghdú mór ar an méid daoine atá ag éisteach leis an nglaoch chun bheith ina shagairt. Is é an scéal céanna é in Éirinn.

Inniu agus an tAoire Maith á cheiliúradh againn, tugaimis aird ar a bhriathra bheith aontaithe leis agus leis an Athair le go mbeadh ar ár gcumas a ghuth a aithní i saol ina bhfuil iliomad guthanna eile ár dtarraingt uaidh nuair a ghlaonn sé orthu.
Go raibh sé de mhisneach ag aos óg éisteach leis an Tiarna, an tAoire Maith, nuair a ghlaonn sé orthu. Is féidir an phaidir seo a rá: *A Thiarna losa Crist, Slánaitheoir an domhain, go n-éirí linn ár mbeatha a chaitheamh de réir do dhílse. Go dtreoraí an Spiorad Naomh sagairt agus lucht craobhscaoilte an dea-scéil agus go gcuire losa meitheal uaidh isteach ina fhómhair.
Aiméan.*

The fourth Sunday of Easter is a very special day.
We are asked to pray for an increase of vocations to Priesthood and Religious Life. Vocations are and ought to be fostered in the community. It was Jesus who said, "The harvest is great but the labourers are few. Pray that the Lord of the harvest will send labourers into His harvest" (Matthew 9: 37
-38). In our Baptism each is called to follow Jesus.
At present in the rich countries, there is a significant decrease in the numbers answering the call to priesthood. It is the same in Ireland.

Today as we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday let us strive to be united with Him and his Father, so that we may recognise His voice in a world where there are many voices drawing us away from Him.
May the youth have the courage to listen to the voice of the Lord, the Good Shepherd, when He calls them. We can say this prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, may we spend our lives faithful to You. May the Holy Spirit guide priests and all who preach the gospel, and may the Lord of the harvest send labourers into His harvest. Amen.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes: Mary, God's Mother appeared to Bernadette in Lourdes 161 years ago and asked that people would come on pilgrimage to Lourdes. The Killaloe Diocesan Pilgrimage will be led by Bishop Fintan Monahan

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 13:14.43-52

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats.

When the meeting broke up, many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them.

The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said:

I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.'

It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside.

But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Serve the Lord with gladness.

Come before him, singing for joy. R

Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him,

We are his people, the sheep of his flock. R

Indeed, how good is the Lord,

Eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age. R

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse Apo 7:9.14-17

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;

I know my own sheep and my own know me.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jn 10:27-30

Jesus said:

'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice;

I know them and they follow me.

I give them eternal life;

they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me.

The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone,

and no one can steal from the Father.

The Father and I are one.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.
