Pentecost Sunday (Year C) 9th June, 2019

Come Holy Spirit

A Baptism marks a day when all of us begin a new life in Christ, the day when Pentecost becomes a lived reality. It is that day which sets the direction for our Christian way of Living.

Without Pentecost Christ work would not have been complete, his death may have proved his love for us but it would not of itself improve our lives. There would be no effective following of him nor the right to call Christ our God our Father. It is the spirit of Pentecost that makes all this possible. However the celebration of Pentecost is not just personal; is communal as well.

Unity and diversity both are so pronounced in today's readings but it is also the pattern of our living in our modern world. In the acts of the apostles we feel that there is an open door policy. Open to the Church and people of all cultures and religions. There can be no distinction of race, gender, nationality or social status. We find our unity in one Lord, one Faith and one Baptism. There are many ways in which life is lived and service is rendered across all spectrums of the world. Being open to the Spirit helps us to respect our cultural differences. We have diverse Liturgical expressions in the Church, different approaches to theology, different forms of government. All of this goes hand in hand bonded with a unity in faith.

The Spirit breathes where and as it wills.

Pentecost is a reminder that God speaks to us in the various patterns and circumstances of our lives. “If today you hear his voice harden not your hearts”

Pentecost Sunday is celebrated fifty days after Easter. The Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles. They together with Mary, and the friends of Jesus were filled with the Holy Spirit. The Apostles went out to proclaim the good news of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Through the teaching of Saint Peter three thousand were admitted into the Church. The Holy Spirit gave power to the Apostles and through that power they "renewed the face of the earth". We receive the Holy Spirit in the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. On this Pentecost Sunday let us remember that we are Christians and that we belong to Our Lord Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth who will help us to live our lives according to the truth. The following is the first prayer we learned. In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Holy Spirit may you be praised for ever. Fill our hearts with your love and dedication. Make us disciples of Jesus. Amen.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Spirit of God dwelling within us, alleluia.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord

C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language.

They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely,' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, my soul!

Lord God, how great you are,

How many are your works, O Lord!

The earth is full of your riches.

R

You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth.

R

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!

May the Lord rejoice in his works!

May my thoughts be pleasing to him

I find my joy in the Lord.

R

Reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Rm 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God.

Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him.

Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you. So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives.

If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!'

The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jn 14:15-16.23-26

Jesus said to his disciples:

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words.

And my word is not my own; it is the word of the one who sent me.

I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.
