Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) 4th August, 2019

Take nothing for the journey. Luke 9.3

It would be very imprudent when going on a journey that we don't make adequate provisions for our requirements. What is really meant by Christ's exhortation to the disciples 'Take nothing for the journey' to dispel the notion that we must be absolutely secure, successful and sheltered from the hazards of life.

Much of our time is spent taking proper care of our livelihoods, employments and well being. We want to make sure that we have enough for ourselves and our families. The strong consumerism of modern day society forces our standards of living to another level. It is all too easy to become entangled in the things that are passing - material things. However we can easily fall into the trap of building bigger and better barns for our security. But then we have to keep in mind that these are transient things.

Today's scripture readings reminds us that we need to keep our priorities correct and at the centre of our attention. We are called to use generously the goods of this life rather than hoarding up wealthy possessions some of which we don't need. While it may hurt to use sparingly, our resources keep us in shape for the purpose in life which really counts.

Recent times and current developments are calling on us to cherish the gifts of nature and environment – they are God's gift that provide for everyone on earth. One of the most relevant scandals is the unequal distribution of the goods of the earth especially when we know that almost one-third of the population of the world are living in need and are subject to the greed of others. We are all called to examine our attitudes especially when we are so much concerned about the plight of the poor and marginalised who have equal rights to the goods of the earth.

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear. Sr. Ann Boland 1934-2019

On Thursday, July 25, we laid Sister Ann Boland to rest in her native parish of Mullagh into the company of her Mam and Dad, Catherine and Michael and her brother, Paddy. The words of the late poet, priest and mystic, John O'Donoghue, come to mind in reflecting on Ann Boland – "I have always loved the shy beauty of country people who have quietly made their lives sacred. Their presence has the feel of authenticity". This quiet, gentle woman was born in Finurebeg on June 3rd 1934 into a family of three girls and two boys.

As a young teenager she responded to a primary school visit from a visiting member of the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Sacred Heart, a Religious Order founded in South Australia by Mary McKillop for the primary purpose of the education of the poor in rural areas of Australia. So at the tender age of sixteen, Ann Boland and five other Irish teenagers made the six-week long sea journey to Australia to become Sisters of St. Joseph and dedicate their lives to the service of the poor. Ann worked most of her life with the Aboriginal people (first people of the land) as a teacher and champion of social justice in Western and Northern Australia.

In 1998 the Josephites made a decision to facilitate Irish members of the congregation who wished to return to Ireland. In the autumn of 1998, Ann arrived home to Clare and to the parish of Ennis where she volunteered to work in the community. For twenty years she continued her ministry of education and being a champion for the poor. She was involved in all aspects of parish life including school chaplaincy in Ennis N.S. and the Gaelscoil, sacramental preparation of both children and adults and the care of the sick and house bound.

Ann had a particular gift of home and family visitation; she was central in the parish visitation group and the outreach to the 'new Irish', migrants and refugees. Liturgy was another of Ann's interests and gifts including the yearly blessing of pre-school children, newly baptised babies in the parish and the blessing of expectant parents.

Ann delighted in parish life and blessed so many with her quiet and gentle way. Recent years saw Ann struggle with health issues but she persevered, positive and enthusiastic to the end.

We thank you Sr. Ann for your work, your presence, your witness and above all the way you allowed the Holy Spirit to move in and through you.

Mí Lúnasa

A Thiarna, bí linn i mí Lúnasa. Is í intinn an Phápa don mhí seo ná: Is í intinn an Phápa don mhí seo ná :Go mbeadh teaghlaigh níos mó agus níos mó ina "scoileanna fáis dhaonna "de bharr a nguí agus a gcuid carthanachta. Ar an Mháirt seo chugainn, 6 Lúnasa ceiliúrtar Claochlú ár dTiarna Íosa Críost ar fud an domhain. Thóg Íosa leis Peadar, Séamas agus Eoin deartháir Shéamais, agus sheol sé iad suas sliabh ard ar leithligh. Thug athrú ghné Chríost dearcadh dá dheisceabail ar ghlór Dé. Bhí Páis Chríost ar tí tarlú. Ina dhiaidh sin bheadh na deisceabail ina n-aonar agus contúirt ar gach taobh díobh. Shoilsigh gnúis Íosa ar nós na gréine agus d'éirigh a chuid éadaigh chomh gléigeal leis an solas. Chonacthas dóibh Maois agus Éilias ag comhrá Leis. Labhair Peadar: "A Thiarna," ar seisean le hÍosa, "is maith mar tharla anseo sinn: más maith leat é, déanfaidh mé trí bhoth san áit seo, ceann duit féin, ceann do Mhaois agus ceann d'Éilias." Sula raibh an focal as a bhéal, seo scamall solasmhar ina scáil anuas orthu, agus an glór as an scamall: "Is é seo mo Mhac muirneach dár thug mé gnaoi; éistigí leis." Matha 17 :1-5. Léirigh Sé an ghlóir atá i ndán dúinne agus do Chríostaithe dílse. Cuireann Féile an lae inniu i gcuimhne dúinn go bhfuil Dia i ngar dúinn de shíor, go mór mór in am an chruatain. Moladh go deo le Dia. Áiméan.

Lord be with us during the month of August. The Pope's intention for August is : That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly "schools of true human growth.".

On Tuesday August 6, the Feast of the Transfiguration is celebrated worldwide. Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John the brother of James, and brought them up into a high mountain. The Transfiguration of Jesus gave the apostles an insight into the glory of God. The Passion of Jesus was soon to follow ... Jesus was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. Moses and Elijah appeared and talked with him. Peter spoke and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let us make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them. A voice spoke from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him." Matthew 17:1-5. He foretold the glory that awaits each one of us and all the faithful. Today's feast reminds us that God is always with us especially in times of trouble. May God be praised forever. Amen
