Thoughts on Grief

*GRIEF cannot be shared
because it is mine alone.
Grief is a dying within me,
a great emptiness,
a frightening void.
It is a loneliness,
a sickening sorrow of night,
an awakening, a terrible dread.
Another's words do not help.
A reasoned argument explains little for having tried too much.
Silence is the best response
to another's grief.
Not that silence that is
a pause in speech,
awkward and unwanted,
but one that unites heart to heart.
Love, speaking in silence,
is the way into the void
of another's grief.
The best of all comes silently,
and slowly too,
to soften the pain of grief
and begin to dispel the sadness.
It is the love of God,
warm and true, which will touch
the grieving heart and heal it.*

Prayer in time of Bereavement.

*LORD, you are close to the broken hearted.
Be with me now in my grief and loneliness.*

*Give me the courage to face my loss
and not to grieve in silence.*

Be with me as I struggle with many different and painful feelings.

Ease the hurt in my heart.

Encircle me in Your Love.

Help me to believe that one day I will no longer have this deep sorrow.

*May I find comfort in sharing my grief
with those who understand the strong bonds
of love.*

*Stay with me, Lord, support me.
Help me to know that Your power is at work within me as I deal with my grief. Amen*
