THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Year A 19th November, 2023

THE PARABLE OF THE TALENTS

Nick Vujicic is an Australian- American born without arms or legs who has become a world-renowned speaker, New York Times best-selling author, coach and entrepreneur. Nick faced tremendous obstacles in life from, living life without limbs, to being bullied at school and fearful for his future with no purpose in sight. Without hope, his feelings of helplessness and isolation led him to attempt suicide. Nick persevered through life's challenges and discovered key principles which enabled him to find his purpose and turn obstacles into opportunities; making him one of the most sought-after keynote speakers in the world! Millions of people have found hope, purpose and the strength to overcome their challenges through Nick's inspirational speeches and powerful coaching. Nick is also the founder and CEO of the non- profit ministry-"Life without Limbs".

Nick has no arms and legs but lives life with no limits and does not allow his limitations to hold him back but turns them into opportunities for growth and success; he is truly an inspiration to many. Unlike the third servant in today's gospel passage, Nick never questioned God nor complained that God was unfair or unjust to him instead he strived to make the most of what life had to offer him with the little or nothing that he had. He is a living testimony of God's love and when you trust in His divine Wisdom and share even the little or nothing, God work miracles.

Today's Gospel presents to us the parable of the talents. The parable of the talents directs us on what to do to make the kingdom grow. It speaks of the gifts and the charisms which people receive from God. Every person has qualities, knows something that he/she can teach others. Nobody is just a pupil; nobody is just a teacher. We all learn from one another. Divine mercy will grow in us only in as much as we give it to others. We call this the law of the gift: "We grow in wealth to the extent that we give it away". You can only "have" the greatest gifts-like love, beauty, gracefulness, and friendshipby giving them away. The moment we try to keep these things to ourselves rather than freely sharing them, they melt through our fingers. God trusts us with all his possessions and in particular his most precious possession: love. God made us to love and be loved, but we seem to receive so little love. And that, I think, is because we don't take the time and trouble to give love. Everybody seems to be either working or surfing the net or texting or busy with something else. We don't take the time to listen to each other, to smile at each other.

Life about getting; lt`s İS not about giving. If I feel like no one is giving me love, like no one understands me, I can fix the problem immediately by giving love to another, by seeking to understand someone else. In the Gospel, the first two servants give away what they received from their master. In business terms, they invest it, and get a return on their investment. But in spiritual terms, they give it away. And because they give it away, they get it back. They get back more than they gave away. And this is what "sharing your master's joy "means: recognising the law of the gift. It is the joy of knowing that our Father will always provide for us, and we need not fear to exercise the joy of giving. If we sincerely try, He will bless us with success and make us partners in his joy and we will become partners in his vineyard.

World Day of the Poor

Pope Francis has asked that this Sunday would be dedicated as World Day of the Poor.

Lord Jesus, help us to be your ears to listen to the cries of the poor. Help us to be your voice speaking out love and acceptance. Help us to be your feet, walking beside those in need. Help us to be your hands to clothe, feed and shelter them. You came for the least, the lost and last of the world, you live and reign forever and ever. Amen. "The hope of the poor will not perish for ever" (Psalm 9:19)

Ennis Parish Remembering our Dead

A booklet published by Ennis Parish remembering 214 parishioners who died in the past year is available in the Parish Office.

In previous years we were able to cover the cost of these booklets but unfortunately with reduced income this is no longer possible. We ask for a donation for each book to help us cover the cost incurred in publishing.

This booklet helps keep the memory and stories of our loved ones alive for future generations.

Confessions in the Cathedral. During the restoration work on the floor in the Cathedral Confessions are held in the Columbarium.

Ennis Parish Office

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place. PENITENTIAL RITE Ρ. Have mercy on us, O Lord C. For we have sinned against you. Ρ Show us, O Lord, your mercy. And grant us your salvation. C. P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. C. Amen. GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on US. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen. A reading from the book of Proverbs. Pr. 31:10-13.19-20.30-31

A perfect wife - who can find her? She is far beyond the price of pearls. Her husbands heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit. Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life.

She is always busy with wool and with flax, she does her work with eager hands. She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle.

She holds out her hand to the poor,

she opens her arms to the needy.

Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who is wise is the one to praise.

Give her a share in what her hands have worked for and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Response: O Blessed are those who fear the Lord.
O blessed are those who fear the Lord And walk in his ways! By the labour of your hands you sl eat.
You will be happy and prosper.	R
Your wife is like a fruitful vine In the heart of your house; Your children like shoots of the olive, around your table.	R
Indeed thus shall be blessed The man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Zion In a happy Jerusalem All the days of your life.	R
A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.	St.
1 Th 5:1- You will not be expecting us to w anything to you, brothers, about 'tin and seasons', since you know very w that the Day of the Lord is going to co like a thief in the night. It is when peo are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it that the worst suddenly happens, suddenly as labour pains come or pregnant woman; and there will be way for anybody to evade it. But it is not as if you live in the dark, brothers, for that Day to overtake y like a thief. No, you are all sons of li and sons of the day: we do not belong the night or to darkness, so we sho not go on sleeping, as everyone e does, but stay wide awake and sober. Gospel Acclamation Alleluia, alleluia! Even if you have to die, says the Lord Keep faithful, and I will give you The crown of life. Alleluia!	,
A reading from the Hely Cos	nal

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Mt. 25:14-30

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out.

Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir", he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made."

His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness."

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon To be near God is my happiness, To place my hope in God the Lord.
