TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C

Luke 17:5-10

Sunday 5th October 2025

Today's gospel passage presents the theme of faith, introduced by the disciples' request: "increase our faith!". A beautiful prayer, which we should pray often throughout the day: "Lord, increase my faith!".

Luke 17:6

"if you have faith as small as a mustard seed"

Jesus responds with two images: the grain of mustard and the willing servant. "If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree: 'Be rooted up, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you". The mulberry is a robust tree, deeply rooted in the ground and resistant to the winds. Thus, Jesus wishes to make it understood that faith, even if small, can have the power to uproot so much as a mulberry tree and then to transplant it into the sea, which is something even more improbable: but nothing is impossible for those who have faith, because they do not rely on their own strengths but in God, who can do everything.

The faith comparable to the grain of mustard is a faith that is not proud and self-assured: it does not pretend to be that of a great believer at times making gaffes! It is a faith that, in its humility, feels a great need of God and in its smallness surrenders itself, trusting fully in Him. It is a faith that gives us the ability to look with hope at the alternate events of life, which helps us to accept even defeat, suffering, with the awareness that evil never has, never will have, the last word.

How can we understand if we truly have faith, that is, if our faith, while miniscule, is genuine, pure, sincere? Jesus explains this by indicating what the measure of faith is: service. And he does so with a parable which at first glance is somewhat disconcerting, because it presents the figure of an overbearing and indifferent master. But this master's very way of doing things highlights what is the true core of the parable, which is the servant's attitude of willingness. Jesus wishes to say that this is how people of faith are with regard to God: they completely give themselves over to his will, without calculations or pretexts.

This attitude toward God is also reflected in the manner of behaviour in the community: it is reflected in the joy of being at the service of one another, finding one's reward already therein, and not in the recognition and gains that may derive from it. This is what Jesus teaches at the end of this narrative: "when you have done all you have been told to do, say, 'We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty.'"

Unworthy servants, that is, without expecting to be thanked, without pretexts. "We are merely servants" is an expression of humility and willingness and humble service, of which Jesus gave the greatest example, by washing the feet of the disciples

Deireadh Fómhair

Cuirimis fáilte roimh mhí Dheireadh Fómhair ar an gCéadaoin seo chugainn. A Íosa, bí linn i rith na míosa le do bheannachtaí agus do ghrá dúinn.

I rith na míosa seo, tugaimid ómós agus léirimid ár ngrá don Mhaighdean Mhuire agus d'Íosa tríd an Choróin Mhuire a rá go rialta i rith na míosa agus sinn ag machnamh ar bheatha an tSlánaitheora ar a bhás agus a aiséirí glórmhar. Bhí mórghrá i gcónaí ag ár sinsir do Mhuire mar a léirítear sa phaidir seo a leanas, atá againn ón mbéaloideas, ag moladh na Maighdine Muire.

October

We welcome the month of October on Wednesday. Be with us Jesus with your blessings and love. We can show our love for Our Lady and Jesus by saying the Rosary regularly during the month and reflecting on the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Our ancestors had a great love of our Lady as is revealed in this verse from folklore in praise of Our Lady.

Mary Queen of Heaven,
Refuge of the weak,
Sea of humanity,
Guiding star of the wanderer,
Lady who resolves anger,
Interpreter of the complainer,
Atonement of the judge,
Spokesperson of those without voice,
Pathway of virtue.

Tide of grace and Clíodhna wave of mercy.

Nóta: Clíodhna is one of the three great waves in Irish mythology protecting our coast.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will.

For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven;
you are the Lord of all.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord

C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the prophet Habakkuk

Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen;

to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear

and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me,

why do you look on where there is tyranny?

Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes.

Then the Lord answered and said,

'Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only: eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail.

See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by faithfulness. '

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response:

O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;

hail the rock who saves us.

Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord. R.

Come in; let us bow and bend low;

let us kneel before the God who made us

for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. R.

O that today you would listen to his voice!

'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,

as on that day at Massah in the desert

when your fathers put me to the test;

when they tried me, though they saw my work.' R.

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy

2 Tm 1:6-8.13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Lk 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

"Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty. " '

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God, begotten,

not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.
